

CLARKSVILLE

CONNECTED UTILITIES

January 2025

CCU Commissioner's Pledge for Ethical Behavior Ethical Standards for All Commissioners will be as follows:

- Commissioners must put forth an honest effort in the performance of their duties
- Commissioners must safeguard and conserve public money and property
- Commissioners shall prevent fraud, waste and abuse
- Commissioners shall treat all persons respectfully and equally
- Commissioners shall preserve public trust
- Commissioners will not use their position to seek an unauthorized benefit for themselves or another person
- Commissioners will neither solicit or accept gifts or additional compensation for the performance of their duties
- Commissioners will not tamper with or conceal public records
- Commissioners will not have any financial interest in any contract with the City unless disclosed and authorized
- Commissioners Shall not disclose confidential information or use such information for personal gain

Respectfully signed:

Ethan Powell, Chairman

LaShainea Pollander, Vice Chair

Freeman Wish, Secretary

Jennifer Risinger, Commissioner

Roger Brooks, Commissioner 